Instructions for Python exam.

1.-Clone the following repository on your computer: git@github.com:ALEXREYES06/examenPython.git

2.- From the branch "Main" creates a new branch called: yourname_date_examenpython *

3.- Change to your created branch and work on it, in this same you will save all the scripts requested in your exam, without folders, without residual files, only the scripts.py that are requested

4.-Upload the changes of your branch to the remote repository and ask the owner of the same to review your commit, and the review of your exercises.

*Note: The main branch must not contain any other files that are not approved by the repository owner, be very careful not to push this branch